Named Branch Manager Of Largest Hawaii Bank

HONOLULU — The Bishop National Bank, Hawaii's largest banking organization, last week named a Nisei as manager to its newest branch being opened in Honolulu.

Ted Imamoto, after more than 20 years of service with the Bishop Bank, was chosen to head its 21st branch. All the directors of the bank are Caucasians.

To observers here, the appointment of a Nisei branch manager by the Bishop Bank had the earmarks of having been motivated, in part at least, by business competition. Two years ago, Bishop's chief competitor, the Bank of Hawaii, selected a Nisei, Gus Yamagata, to head a downtown Honolulu branch where he is still the manager.

The cases of Yamagata and Imamoto have served to demonstrate the gradual promotions and prestige which have come to aspiring Japanese Americans in Hawaii's business life. For a long time, Nisei have complained of so-called dual standards of pay and promotions, under which they emerged "second best" in competition with Caucasians.

Of late, however, Caucasian directors and executives of many of the larger establishments have begun to seek out promising Nisei for more important posts in their organizations. This change in attitude is believed to stem from two considerations: First, the rising economic status of the Japanese buying clientele, and second, the increasing competence of Nisei employes, especially the younger men and women who enter the labor market more qualified by training and education than their predecessors of years past.

A few columns back, I wrote an effort on The Ideal (Nisei) Girl—a thing that could obviously only exist in fairy-tale books, technicolour movies, and popular songs, and, rarely in the unappealing black and white reality of everyday life. I said that one has to be able to compromise and be philosophical about the whole thing.

Now comes a letter from a Nisei Joe who admits to be the type who regularly and desperately form the stag-line at the Nisei dances—this type is always on the look-out for a girl. The Nisei Joe, I'm afraid is quite frustrated and melancholy about Nisei girls. I quote:

". . . About the ideal girl—looks and figure are just come-ons, they're important but not as important as other things such as understanding. A girl doesn't have to be well-read, see the latest movies, and know the latest gossips to be understanding. If they have a little patience, and if they remember the cold you had last week—that's understanding and thoughtfulness . . .

". . . It pains me to see well-shaped, good-looking girls flouting in vain and abusing their beauty. I admit a beautiful girl can haunt you night and day, just like the song, but no male has any use for beauty with a cold heart. It's easy to see that most Nisei girls possess more that their share of beauty. Now if they would use a little of their common sense and discard their vanity for understanding, I would be greatly pleased."

Now this Nisei Joe who self-admittedly says that he is a member of the stag-line type who stand in line and hold up the wall while discussing girls and ogling at them without doing anything about the unhappy situation, seems to me to be almost a hopeless case. The disillusionment resulting from the fallen pedestal upon which he has perhaps put a Nisei girl has left him a sadly shattered and desolate man. I hope some sweet-[illegible] thing will bouy up his ego [illegible].

I pass on to another letter, this time from a Nisei girl . . .

". . . Got a great kick out of the column about the ideal girl . . . but you fail to mention that the girl is probably going to be the mother of your children. You fail to realize that the girl must

"Go for Broke!" Finally Opens In Toronto

"Go for Broke!" played as a special midnight feature on Monday, July 2. Young Niseis made a good share of the wee hour audience. It's also reported that some Nisei youngsters getting into the mood of the war film were heard yelling "Go for broke!" after the performance.

Issei Fire-Fighting Near Hope, Drowns

VANCOUVER — Funeral services for Yoshikuni Adachi, whose body was found in a river near Hope, B. C., where he had been fire-fighting, was held on July 6.

According to the report, the late Mr. Adachi, an Issei who had been employed as a carpenter in the Hope area, had gone out to fight a forest fire and had been missing for several days prior to the recovery of his body. No word has been received as to the cause of his death, but it is believed that he fell into the river and drowned.

Contest Has 42 Girls

LOS ANGELES — The Queen Race of the 11th annual Nisei Week Festival officially got under way last week with 42 girls in the running. Of the 42 candidates, so far only 10 have officially registered as contestants for the Queen title.

Nisei Week Festival this year is to take place Aug. 18-26.

Sally Nakamura Signed Again To 2nd Film Role in Tokyo

TOKYO — Vancouver-born Satoshi "Sally" Nakamura who appeared in Nisei concerts in Vancouver before the war and cavorted in the outfield for the Asahis has been assigned to his second American film role.

He is to appear in "Geisha Girl", a Breakston-Stahl production now being made in Tokyo. His first role was that of a villain in "Tokyo File 212", which is being released through RKO. (Ed. Note: Film has not been shown in Canada as yet.)

Hamilton Nisei is Elected Prexy of YMCA Committee At Cleveland Convention

CLEVELAND — Two Niseis from Canada took part in the Centennial International Young Mens' Christian Association Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Y.M.C.A. in North America as well as other Niseis from the United States, the Territory of Hawaii, and delegates from Japan, who gathered last week in the American city.

Along with the 7,000 delegates, they listened to such noted speakers as Dr. Ralph Bunche, Paul Hoffman and Dr. Ralph Sockman during the celebration.

The two Niseis wearing Canadian capers—smartly designed caps made especially for Canadian delegates—were Gus Oki and Jack Takayesu, both from the Hamilton YMCA.

Gus Oki who is studying at the George Williams College in Montreal, joined the Student YMCA Conference while Jack Takayesu, Past-Chairman of the Hamilton So-Ed Club, attended the North American Young Adult Assembly and the 6th National Young Adult Conference.

Takayesu who was one of a total delegation of 48 from Hamilton, Ont., came away with a national appointment when he was elected President of the National So-Ed Committee of Canada at the biennial meeting held at the Cleveland YMCA. The National So-Ed is a body serving more than 55 So-Ed clubs, whose memberships total well over 10,000 across Canada.

Although American Nisei were not seen, it was believed that a few had registered for the Centennial Celebration.

Nine Nisei teenagers from all parts of Hawaii attended the International Hi-Y Congress and at least two Nisei couples attended the International Y'smen Convention. In the North American Young Adult Assembly, a Hawaiian Nisei girl, now living in Cleveland, entertained the delegates with a colorful performance of a Hawaiian Hula Dance.

Over twenty delegates came from Japan to join in the celebrations and attend the various group conferences. The Japanese registered in the International Y'smen Convention, the Triennial Conference of Association of Secretaries, 6th Hi-Y Congress, Young Adult Conference, as well as others.

Plans for the next North American Young Adult Assembly are well underway with Canada slated as host in 1954 to young adults from all over the continent.

The Japanese Canadians who were present at the Centennial Celebrations were just one of the examples of the different races from the 27 of the 76 nations served by the YMCA who gathered in Cleveland.

Cecil L. Brown, general secretary of the Hamilton YMCA, said, "There was no evidence of any boundary lines of race, creed, or color. All sat and planned together, all spoke with one voice in open forums and shared the speakers rostrum.

Young Mission Couple Leaving for Japan

Rev. F. L. Pickering, B.A., M. Th., who is assistant minister at a Baptist church in Toronto, and his wife, Rev. Marion Pickering, B.A., B.D., are leaving later this year for Japan where they will go into missionary work.

The couple will be the first from the Baptist Church of Canada to go to Japan. Mrs. Pickering was born in China of missionary parents.

U.S. Congress Restores Citizenship to Two Niseis

WASHINGTON, D. C. — President Truman last week signed two private bills restoring citizenship to two Nisei girls who were expatriated by voting in postwar Japanese elections. They are the first bills of their kind affecting Japanese Americans to be approved by Congress since World War II.

The bills would permit [illegible] Sakurada and Dorothy Maeda who each admitted voting under pressure in the Japanese elections of 1946-47 to regain American citizenship by taking the oath of naturalization.

These bills are the first ever approved to restore citizenship to expatriated Nisei, although such private bills are not at all uncommon involving persons of other nationalities.

In the past the only Nisei expatriates who have regained citizenship where the only factor was voting in postwar elections, have done so in court cases. Approximately 20 such cases have been [illegible] in American courts by Nisei strandees. All but one case has resulted in [illegible] of citizenship.

Meanwhile the JACL is sponsoring general legislation which would permit Nisei expatriates to regain citizenship by taking the oath of naturalization.

OUR FOREMOST PROBLEM

In submitting the National JCCA brief outlining the severe restrictions placed against the re-entry and immigration into Canada of persons of Japanese ancestry and in preparing to meet with the Minister of Immigration to discuss this last major Japanese Canadian political problem, the first firm step towards attempting to do away with certain racial features in Canada's present immigration policy has been taken.

For some time, this publication has pointed out these inconsistencies that work hardships on many Japanese Canadian families and harped with almost monotonous regularity that we must initiate the action ourselves if we are to achieve any abrogation of these racially restrictive laws. How stringent these restrictions are as applied against persons of Japanese ancestry can be readily seen by the cases cited in the National JCCA brief where admittance has been denied.

In each of these cases with the possible exception of those where service in the Japanese forces is admitted, entry or re-entry into Canada has been rejected either by an effect of an Order-in-Council or by government policy which are applicable to persons of Japanese ancestry. No consideration has been given to the compassionate nature or the individual merit of these cases.

The right to live together in family units, to share and enjoy the companionship of loved ones, is a basic one. Indeed, an article of the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights states:

"The family is the natural and fundamental group unit of society and is entitled to protection by society and the State."

Yet, we find many Japanese Canadian families, as a result of Canadian government policy, are denied of what we accept as being natural and inviolable. As Canadians of Japanese ancestry participating in the full responsibilities of citizenship, we are seeking this basic right which would grant us equal treatment as that accorded citizens of other national origins.

While it remains to be seen what effect the submission and the meeting with the Immigration Minister will have, it is too optimistic to expect any immediate achievement as the outcome. We should consider this as the initial round of a long battle and we must prepare for successive steps that must be taken. Not [illegible] just a JCCA task, it is a job in which we all have a stake. The National JCCA has made a timely and an important opening, now we must keep pressing [illegible] to stop or slacken.

On the other hand we have every reason to expect of the Immigration Minister a heedful and sympathetic hearing of the [illegible] re-entry and immigration into Canada [illegible] Japanese Canadians. We are neither requesting [illegible] treatment, but only that which we [illegible] grounds.

In [illegible] the immigration of Asiatics to Canada [illegible] this year, Mr. Harris [illegible]

We are seeking the extension of this human consideration to include Japanese Canadians.

Hate Films on Television

By LARRY TAJIRI

To paraphrase what is by now a tired cliche, old movies never die—you can see them every night on television.

Video's use of decade-old motion pictures for much of their programming means that a lot of hate films, produced in the months following Pearl Harbor, may come back to haunt the Nisei.

One such film, titled appropriately enough, "Let's Get Tough," shouted its racist message the other night in our living room. Both of the Salt Lake stations show old movies late at night after the network kinescopes have been unreeled. These films, drawn from the bottomless pit of cheap Hollywood features, are usually at least ten years old. None are less than five years old since pictures produced since 1946 cannot be shown on television without the approval of Petrillo's American Federation of Musicians.

The major film producing companies so far have resisted the urge to coin a fast dollar by selling their old pictures to television but pictures produced on Poverty Row and by some of the larger independent producers have been bought up for video. Television station, some with nearly 100 hours of programming a week, use up more celluloid in seven days than Hollywood producers in a month. There are stations in the Los Angeles area which show more than 20 features a week, mainly westerns and crime melodramas. This means that nearly every motion picture produced in Hollywood since the first 100 percent talkie, which was Warner's "Lights of New York" produced back in about 1929, is going to show up on the home television screen and will find potential audiences in the millions.

Most of the films produced since Pearl Harbor, which are being shown over TV were produced in Hollywood by Monogram, Producers Releasing Corporation, Allied Arts and other small companies. These filmmakers were not immune from the "hate-the-Japs" cycle through which Hollywood passed in the first years of World War II.

Typical of this sort of product was "Let's Get Tough," one of the Eastside Boys pictures produced by Sam Katzman which utilized the talents of Leo Gorcey, Bobby Jordan, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell and other members of the snarling, rowdy gang which skyrocketed to prominence in the stage play, "Dead End." They were the "Dead End Kids" until they became the "Eastside Boys" and they are still on the screen in Monogram's "Bowery Boys" films.

"Let's Get Tough" tells how the gang frustrates the attempts of a group of saboteurs of Japanese ancestry, all members of the Black Dragon Society, to destroy American war industries. One of the saboteurs, a sneaky character at best, is identified as Joe Matsui, who went to high school in New York. Although Joe poses as an American he turns out to be as dastardly a member of the Black Dragon Society as any of the alien Japanese who are portrayed in the film. The writing is shoddy and refers to Issei and Nisei alike as "Japs" or as "Skibbies," a derogatory racial term which Damon Runyon sought to popularize in his Hearst columns which called attention to the West Coast "menace" back in 1942. The creator of the Lemon Drop Kid and Nicely Nicely Jones was not above a little race-baiting on occasion.

"Let's Get Tough" was a cheap picture and did not have a wide audience. It was destined to molder in some Hollywood vault until TV's demand for films resulted in its resurrection. This film, and others like it, already have been shown in most TV areas, undercutting with its falsehoods about war time sabotage by persons of Japanese ancestry, some of the affirmative public relations resulting from the showing of "Go for Broke!"

The point, and one which concerns the JACL and other minority group organizations interested in public relations, is that many more films containing racist poison may be presented on the screens of America's ten-million TV set-owners in months to come.

In 1942 and 1943 Hollywood produced a [illegible] which spread [illegible] spawned at the [illegible] Harbor about [illegible]. There was [illegible] "Little Tokyo, USA" in [illegible] Anti-Axis Committee [illegible] a JACL-sponsored [illegible] that name in Los Angeles [illegible] 1942) is depicted as the [illegible] for pro-Japanese [illegible] sabotage. There was [illegible] trayal from the [illegible] a yell leader at Stanford shown to be a Japanese [illegible] officer (played by [illegible]) a specialist in [illegible] who is the same [illegible] played the brave [illegible] in Samuel Fuller's [illegible] met" last year.)

Two major films [illegible] of Japanese American [illegible] (which never really [illegible]) were made by Warner Brothers. One, "Air Force," starring John Garfield and written by Dudley Nichols, spread lies about Hawaiians of Japanese ancestry [illegible] the time of Pearl Harbor. [illegible] colonel in this film explains that none of the planes could get off the ground when Hickam Field was attacked on Dec. 7th because the "Honolulu Japs" had cut [illegible] the tails from the planes and [illegible] so blocked the highways with their cars to obstruct military traffic. This film also shows American soldiers being fired [illegible] in Maui by saboteurs, presumably local Japanese. The second film, "Across the Pacific," shows Sen Yung as a glib-talking Nisei saboteur who attempts to destroy the Panama Canal. This picture was written by Howard Koch and directed by John Huston who has made such memorable pictures as "Maltese Falcon," "The Asphalt Jungle" and "Treasure of Sierra Madre" and who should have known better.

The problem of [illegible] about discouraging TV stations from screening motion pictures which incite race prejudice through ignorance or deliberate falsehoods is a delicate [illegible] the practices of outright [illegible] ship are abhorrent [illegible] cracy.

It is obvious that the [illegible] is one which the JACL [illegible] watchdog for the Nisei [illegible] face. The JACL has [illegible] sible, in at least one [illegible] discouraging a Hollyw[illegible] cer from making a m[illegible] based on a book writ[illegible] ist propaganda against [illegible] of Japanese ancestry [illegible] ted States (Peter B[illegible] "Pride of Palomar.") [illegible] pears that the JACL [illegible] backward as well as [illegible] its public relations [illegible]

The Limit Is 200

At school, when things were generally done in alphabetical order, many Niseis with names like Suzuki, Takahashi, Watanabe or Yoshida (the Japanese Smiths, Joneses and Browns) were always the last ones to get out. That's the trouble with Japanese surnames, they were concentrated down the wrong end.

A study of Japanese names shows that the letters K, M, T, S and M start more than half of all Japanese surnames, and the rate of frequency is in that order with K accounting for one out of eight Japanese family names. In fact 95 percent of all Japanese names begins with a vowel, F, H, Y, or one of these five most frequent letters.

And four out of five Japanese names have a letter A somewhere [illegible]

The average name has seven letters. The shortest on our files is Ui, no names could be shorter than that. The longest is Shimotakahara.

The most common ending or "suffix" in a Japanese surname is "ta" (or "da") such as in Ikeda or Hirota, while other popular endings are "moto", "mura" and "guchi". "Yama," "Mori" and "Matsu" are the more favorite "prefixes."

By the way, if all Japanese persons in Canada were listed alphabetically, Abe would probably be the first name and Yuasa, the last.

首都オタワの良さ

カナダを訪れて（十）露木 海藏

この場面はジャック中元君がオタワより英文で本紙に報道されているのを讀んだ岡君の文章は、非常に美しく、日本の専門家に見せても好評のものであつた。

私達は更らに通産省に行き輸入局長のヘアスマン氏や其の他の人達に會ひ、午後の三時間ほどを同氏の厚意で雪の市街を觀光した。

オタワは美しい所である、恐らく私の知つている限りでは、冬も夏も他の知らない味合ひを持つている所と思ふ。

カナダの神經がこゝかしこのビルデングに中軸となつて集められている感じである。

然も各ビルは古風な英國の城砦を思はしめるものがある。議事堂の周圍を遶つて市街地の低い所にはカナダ一と言はれるパルプ工場があり、農園に連なる高地への幹線に沿つて運河あり、湖水あり、夏はすばらしき緑と思はれる街路樹の配列は、靜かなる觀光地の様相を帯びている。

これが日本であつたら、ケン〳〵ゴウ〳〵、野郎共の喧嘩腰の聲が騒しくて、和やかさは一つもない。！

オタワを去るに際し、私達の訪問のアレンジに努力してくれた中元君に連絡して御禮を述べたいと思つたが、電話の具合が悪るくその意を傳える事も出來ずに引き返した。

オタワの市街から離れて、農道と思はれるような道を、側の農家のバアーン等、散見しつゝ飛行場に來る風景も素朴で良い。トロントから近い所にあるこの部、ナイヤガラを愛する如く、こゝも見學されん事を各位にすゝめたい。

そこには英國でもなく、勿論アメリカではなくカナダ獨特の深い落付いた、然し、新らしい希望のうちに伸びてゆく神經と體力が、何處となく呼吸している姿があると思つた

コンテイキ號漂流記

雷雨のあとのすがすがしさもよいが、眞夏は、何んといつても朝がよい。またしても

若竹と萩のしげみにおく露を朝々に見て命うるおう

という若山喜志子の歌を書きつける。竹や萩はなくとも、朝早く、しつとり濡れた草をハダシで踏むと、これが思い出されるのである。

筏の同乘者は六人。南米アンデス山中のジャングルでバルサの木を伐り倒し、丸太を河に流して海まで出し、金具は一切使わずに、繩でロープでしばり合せてマストを立て帆を上げて、竹の小屋をこしらえたのが、彼等を百日間も海の上に浮かしてくれた筏なのである。

兩軍代表目下開城で會談中 十一日には停戰成立を希望

（京城發）開城で八日行われた朝鮮停戰豫備會談は七時間の交渉をつづけ滿足なる結果裡に終了したのでいよ〳〵國連最高代表五名は十日より開城において停戰交渉を行いつつあり、順調に進行すれば十一日には停戰が成立するに至るであろうと國連代表は希望している、しかしリッヂウェイ大將は戰鬪中止に先立ち休戰協定が成立されるまで油斷するなと警告を發した

國連軍代表

イラン國粹派が盛んにアジ・デモ

對日講和 桑港で調印會議 九月四日に開幕

日本の代表

金ヘン景氣どうなるか

これが更に發展しては米經濟協定といわれる取きめ——米國の軍艦の下請工場となりまた米國の力が不足する東南アジアへの開發をひきうける約束——までに發展した、ところが今度の停戰、日本としては動亂のおかげで工業も盛んになつたし、再びインフレとなるのを恐れられたほど物價も上つてきたがパッタリ止る心配が起つたわけだ。

毎月八万トン宛

入閣顏觸れ

アルバータ南部に降雪

Potent Best Cleaners Enter Toronto Congress Tourney

The Best Cleaners baseball club continued to romp through the Toronto Intermediate "A" Baseball League with three more wins in recent games to further cement their clutch on first place. Their last win, a 12-9 verdict over Toppers, advanced them into the Congress Tournament. The cleanermen will now meet the winners of the Etobicoke League to represent the Intermediate leagues in the Toronto Senior Congress Baseball Tournament.

On Friday, June 29, Best Cleaners really laid into the opposition with a vengeance, walloping the defending champs, DeFoe Motors, 22-3, with last year's ace pitcher Tucker Uchikura making his Intermediate league debut with a neat 6-hitter.

The team backed him up with a tasty 15-hit attack against three DeFoe pitchers with Hiro Kawaguchi sparking the hitters with three hits, good for five rbi's. George Inata was another big gun, driving home four runs. Uchikura helped his own cause with two hits.

The Nisei team won another easy game on Friday, July 6, with a 10-3 bopping of Tigers. Rookie Ken Nakamichi, although lacking in experience, had his fast ball hopping as he pitched 5-hit ball to come through with the win. Shortstop Art Watanabe had a perfect day at bat with two hits while veteran Tom Kamino garnered two hits in three tries.

The cleanermen's 12-9 triumph over Toppers on July 7 was a free-scoring game in which Basil Cormier was hit hard but managed to hurl the distance in recording his fourth win in five starts with Bill Aoki behind the plate.

Bob Ohashi was the big noise as he came through with three timely hits while George Inata got two blows. Elmer Harafuji was a threat on the basepaths as he pilfered five bases.

Their record now reads 6 wins, 1 tie, and 1 loss.

Shikaze Again Wins Alta. Golf Tourney

EDMONTON, Alta. — A two under par net effort by Ben Shikaze won the Alberta Japanese Golf Association First of July tournament and also copped him the Silk-O-Lina Trophy for the second year in a row. Low gross honors again went to George Matsuba.

Although Shikaze's 36 handicap with which he won the trophy last year was slashed to a 24, he defeated veteran Hiroshi Kuwahara of Calgary by two strokes over the Edmonton Municipal and Riverside golf courses.

Runner-up Don Matsuba was outpaced by three strokes by older brother George who won the low gross department for three successive years.

Following the strenuous rounds of golf, a banquet was held at the Lingnan Cuisine where Mr. Inouye of the Silk-O-Lina Co. in Edmonton presented the trophies to the successful candidates.

Cliffords Down Nisei In Free-Scoring Game

VANCOUVER. — The Vancouver Nisei again absorbed another close loss when they were clipped 10-8 by Clifford's Grill in an Industrial Union League baseball game recently.

Tarapy Hinada who started on the mound for the Nisei was belted early for four hits and four runs by the grillmen and the big righthander gave way to George Fukuyama who also experienced difficulty as he gave up eight hits and six more runs to the opponents. The Cliffords took an 8-0 bulge before the Nisei entered the scoring column with three runs in the third frame from which point they slowly whittled down the imposing lead.

Sixteen men were left stranded on the base-paths by the Nisei which tells the story of their defeat. Catcher Azu Oikawa and outfielder Tanaka garnered two and three hits respectively to lead the 8-hit attack upon Joe Eng, Dick Phipps, and Eddy Leopold, Cliffords' trio of hurlers. Hubbie Matsuzaki's two-base blow was the only extra-base hit for the Nisei.

Isseis Among Those Receiving Citizenship At Dominion Day Ceremonies in Lethbridge

Lethbridge, Alta.

The band played "O Canada."

The scarlet-coated R.C.M.P. stood ramrod-stiff at the salute between the two red ensigns. Men in sober garb and gowns spoke of a great nation, of boundless opportunities and of grave responsibilities.

They spoke of citizenship — Canadian citizenship, and all it entails.

People, 26 of them, of many tongues, placed hands upon the Holy Bible handed them by Sheriff J. H. Fooks and all swore allegiance to the country called "Our Lady of the Snows." Then they took their places with the rest of the audience—Canadians all.

It was July 2 and in the written words of Citizenship Minister Walter Harris it was a "solemn occasion" at the Civic Sports Centre. It was not only a special sitting of district court to grant citizenship certificates but it was a way of making the Dominion Day holiday stand out as a special 24 hours a day for Canadians.

The event began with a military parade. Guest speaker was Senator W. A. Buchanan who had hastened home from Ottawa to tell the new citizens What It Meant to be A Canadian.

Following the several speeches, candidates for citizenship mounted the platform between two scarlet-coated R.C.M.P. constables and a pair of Red Ensigns to repeat the oath of allegiance. Then each received a copy of a letter from Citizenship Minister Harris and the certificate of citizenship.

Among those granted their certificates were Mrs. Chieu Nakamura of Lethbridge, who was Canadian born but had lost her citizenship through marriage to an alien; Mrs. Fusa Chaki and Tokiyoshi Kariatsumari of Picture Butte; Mrs. Iku Kitagawa of Vauxhall; and Fusagoro Fukushima of Taber.

TNT Climbs Into 2nd Place As Halfway Point Reached

With the half-way mark in the 10-game schedule of the Toronto Nisei Sunday Baseball League reached last July 8, the main feature of the carded triple bill was TNT's moving into second place tie with Robbies.

In the lone game at Stanley Park, TNT behind the 3-hit hurling of Dave Sakamoto, copped a 3-1 verdict over Pearl's Credit Jewellers. In notching his third win of the season, Sakamoto struck out five and walked four while loser Bob Maeda whiffed six and walked only one.

Joe Motokado's fifth inning double staked TNT to their lead and also broke the non-scoring string which had existed until that point. Fred Kinoshita stole home in the sixth frame to add an insurance run for the winners. For the Jewellers, George Tanaka shone defensively around first-base as well as collecting a single.

TNT	3	6	0

The first game at Christie Pits turned into a [illegible] technical win for Hurricanes over Robbies who defaulted the game.

The top and the bottom of the league met in the second scheduled game and the inevitable occured when the strong Best Cleaners team racked up a [illegible] win over the winless Busseis. Harold Miwa went the route for cleanermen, striking out eight batsmen while Elmer Harafuji sparked the attack with three hits in three attempts. For the Busseis, Roy Inamoto hit a double.

Best Cleaners	9	7	3
Busseis	2	5	6

The schedule for next Sunday, July 15, is as follows:

Best Cleaners vs. TNT; 9 a.m.; Robbies vs. Pearl's Credit Jewellers, 11 a.m., at Christie Pits. Hurricanes vs. Busseis, 9 a.m. at either Riverdale or Stanley Park.

How far can American Influence Go?

HACHIHONE, Japan — American habit, like coco cola and baseball, are community property with the Japanese. That's fine, usually, but Maj. Gean C. Peterson, of the 40th Infantry Division, thinks American influence can go too far.

Maj. Peterson had to attend the grand opening and dedication of a new Japanese railroad station in northern Japan.

The ceremony was more impressive than most with the leading lights of the district speaking long and eloquently. The whole affair was conducted with great dignity.

Finally, the high spot arrived. A Japanese girl, garbed in rich ancestral robes, her kimono a captured rainbow of silk, bowed low to the silent crowd.

Maj. Peterson strained his ears to hear an ancient Japanese melody, rich in tradition and beauty. Music started. The girl opened her mouth to sing.

But what came out was no ancient Japanese melody. Out the lyrics came, "I've been working on the railroad . . . . ."

"Next come pyramid clubs," the major was heard to mutter as he walked away.

PASSING THRU

be nursemaid, cook, hostess, and a dozen other things. All you seemed concerned with are her physical attributes, her ability to converse intelligently, her insight on human beings. What you want is not a wife but a mistress . . ."

(Touche, young lady, touche; I am speechless).

The Nisei girl who is really full of interesting ideas on the subject, tells me a few of the things she wants in The Ideal Man.

". . . The Ideal Man has to be interested in life in general, politics, good music, books, etc. Physically I'd like him to be taller than me. He doesn't have to be good-looking although it helps. I'd like him to be more intelligent than I am so he can feel superior in some respects. I definitely will not tolerate muscle-bound idiots no matter how much money he has! He should have "savoire-faire", good manners, a sense of humour, ambition, and be capable of loving."

In short, her stiff qualifications demand a virile, mature, intelligent, man-of-the-world type. It coincides with my hazy bird of paradise—a feminine, somewhat sophisticated, intelligent girl. Now I can see at this point that a lot of compromising has to be done since such products of wishful thinking are almost nil.

Over-feminine girls with soft dark eyes and appetizing curves but with the tragic lack of any basic mental quality are apt to become boring while over-masculine girls with lots of know-how and a tweedy look about them may become unappealing.

And on this basis, the eternal search which has been instigated since Eve took a bite at the apple in the Garden of Eden, goes on and on. In the end, the helpless male is usually hog tied by some sweet-young-thing with the scent of peaches and cream and a look of innocence about her, and who appeals to his sense of paternal masculinity.

I'm afraid, therefore, in the long run, the Ideal Nisei Girl or the Ideal Nisei Man is simply just a mythical thing with which hungry typewriter-pushers, such as myself, like to make a column of copy.
